

I oppose FCC deregulation of the media. The public media is not the corporate communication department of the Republican party. The acceptance by FCC commissioners of industry favors in return for influence is a national disgrace.